

Dr. Legaspi Lesson 3

What's the goal to which God is leading Moses and the Israelites (and why does it matter)?

1. What did we learn last class? Review your notes and rewrite a key point or takeaway that you found significant. If you were absent, your job is to review the student guide from last class and then ask your fellow students questions about the points they're about to share.
2. What is the ultimate purpose of the exodus? Is it simply to release the Israelites from unjust slavery? Is it to honor the covenant established with Abraham in which God's people are promised to have their own land? Or is there something even greater that God's work in Moses is pointing toward?

On the one hand, we have seen in our previous two lessons that the Scriptures call us to movement, not to a static existence. However, on the other hand, how do we understand this call to movement in light of the exhortation to stillness that we see throughout the Scriptures, for instance, when the Psalmist writes, "Be still and know that I am God" (Ps. 46:10)?

3. Fill in the points that Dr. Legaspi makes in this video clip
 - a. In Christian theology, Abraham is important because he is the bearer of the _____.
 - b. _____, _____, and _____ were all promised to Abraham, although Pharaoh seems on track to thwart these promises.
 - c. The covenant given at Sinai _____ the covenant made with Abraham.
 - d. Much of the Law is concerned with building the _____.
 - e. The tabernacle is a _____.

